by,second base; Dave Bancroft, shortstop; Frank Frisch, third base; Ruth, Cobb and Speaker in the outfield; Steve O'Neill catcher; Grimes, Faber and Mays, pitchers.

This combination favors the American League by a count of seven to four and makes it look like the National League infielders are all to the good and their outfielders all to the bad. The selection erican League batteries.

Another selection, that of Fred G.

Lieb, one of the leading baseball critics in New York, is of interest. Lieb places on his first team; Sisler, first base; Eddie Collins, second base; Bancroft, short-stop; Frisch, third base; Ruth, Speaker and Ross Young, outfield; O'Neill, Shalk and Snyder, catchers; Faher, Mays, Grimes, Nehf, Shocker and Coveleskie.

Sisler, Bancrfot, Frisch, Ruth, Speaker and ONeill are favored by both ex-perts and probably will be by all who do any kind of "All" picking in the major league. Perhaps all will not agree with ond base, as he is fading, while Hornsby is just reaching his prime.
